Nan Patterson Is Now Before Court

Great Care Used in the Selection of Juries to Hear Evidence and Decide Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 -- With four of the welve men who are to decide her fate dready selected, the trial of Nan Patterson, the former show girl charged with the murder of Caesar Young, the wealthy horseman, was continued in the criminal branch of the Supreme court today

The greatest care has been used in the xamination of the talesmen and the exaustive questloping and almost indiscriminate challenging for even the slight-est cause indicated that not only might another full court day or even more be consumed in filling the fury box, but that the panel of one hundred talesmen might be exhausted before the task was com-pleted.

Public Shut Out.

Thus far the general public has been that not entirely from the proceedings, only those having a direct connection with the case being allowed to enter the courtroom. Yesterday the available space was well filled by the court officials newspaper men and the talesmen awaiting examination as to their qualifications for jury duty, and the efficers who guarded all the doors had little trouble in keeping back the crowds which gathered in the corridors.

On Hand Early.

Whether the ban would be kept down turing the whole progress of the trial was not known, but many who desired to take dvantage of the first opportunity to gain idmittance were on hand early today.

Eye Witness to Shooting. An eye-witness to the shooting of Young as discovered in a most unusual way to-ay while the trial was in progress. Archald J. C. Anderson, one of the men summoned for examination as to his qualifications to serve on the jury was being estioned by Assistant District Attorney and, when he asked permission to serve hen he asked permission to speak stice Davis, who is presiding at . PLANT RUNNING, MEN DEAD.

Entire Working Force in Gas Works Asphyxiated

NEW YORK, Nov 47.-Four men were sphyxiated by gas at Dover, N. J. toay, at the plant of the Dover, Rockaway and Port Oram Gas company. They constituted the entire working force of the plant and were discovered by George E. Bunnell, a former em-by George E. Buinnell, a former employee, who, in visiting the plant found it apparently descrited, with engines running under a full head of steam and scarcely any water in the boilers.

After shutting down the engines and attending to the boilers, Bunnell went through the works and found the four men beneath an open trap door in the rocter-room with the space under the floor filled with gas from a broken valve in the drip pipe.

The men were William Bulmon, 17 years of age, employed as a fireman, Ellas S. Chamberlain, the engineer, Otto Eldschun, a painter, and a man known only as Gustave, also a painter.

The shells fell behind obstructions, which fact prevented the Japanesse obtaining a direct view of their effect. The Chinaman was hanged.

Hospital Ship Shelled.

One day last week a hospital ship moved too near the battleships in the harbor, whereupon the Japanese dropped small shells around her with the obvious purpose of warning her away. The ship took the hint, and when she was outside the zone of danger large shells began falling near the battleships.

Destroyers Disappear.

The torpedo-boat destroyers which en-tered Chefoo this morning to ascertain if the Russian torpedo-boat destroyer Rasto-ropny was here disappeared for a time, but reappeared this afternoon. The Japanese Consol sent a cutter out to meet them and informed the nearest destroyer, the Ka-sumi, that the Rastoropny had been sunk.

The Consul says this was the first the ship knew of the sinking of the Rostor-opny. The Kasumi transmitted the information by wireless telegraph to the Japanese flagship, whorsupon the destroyers disappeared in the direction of Port Arthur.

STOESSEL IS WOUNDED.

Struck in the Head by a Splinter From a Shell.

ST, PETERSBURG, Nov. 18-2 a. m. Rejoleing over the undaunted spirit displayed by General Stoessel in his telegram of congratulation to Emperor Nicholas on the anniversary of his accession to the throne and officially announcing the failure of General Nogis's nine-day attempt to present Port Arthur to the Mikado as a birthday gift, is tempered by prieste information that the gallant commander of the garrison has been wounded.

Wounded by a Shell.

Wounded by a Shell.

General Stoessel was struck in the head by a splinter from a shell, while he was personally directing the repulse of a particularly desperate assault, but fortunately the wound is not serious and General Stoessel has not been obliged to relinquish command. General Stoessel is regarded as the heart and soul of the defense, and his death or disability, which would cause him to relinquish command, would be regarded as an irremediable misfortune.

Garrison Provisioned.

Other information sent by General Stoessel, which has not been divulged for strategic reasons, it is said by the War office, is by no means unfavorable. While the garrison is now hommed in in the citadel itself, not one of the main forts has been taken. The garrison has been provisioned, fresh ammunition has arrived,

Cold Weather Silences Big Guns

Frost King Drives Soldiers Into Dug outs Along Entrenched Lines Near Mukden.

MUKDE ... Nov. 16 (via Tientsin, Nov. 17) -Four days' sharp cold has silenced the artillery and infantry fire between the opposing positions and has driven the soldiers into their dugouts nlong the entire intrenched line. Long Campaign.

The apparent impossibility for either side to eject the other from their burrows, and the fact that in the event one side suc ceeded in advancing it could not dig the other out of its intrenchments on account of the frost, seems to promise a winter's inactivity, although the Japanese, three days ago, made a small reconnaissance toward the extreme east and pushed back the Russian cavalry a few miles as though they were investigating the possibilities for a flanking movement. Wells All Dry.

Wells along the lines are dry and both sides use the Shakhe river, where the soldiers approach unarmed and get water under recognized mutual sanction not to fire on a single soldier. Here the noble art of war is confined to fisticuffs and swapping cigarettes, lack knives and food, all of which are prized. Familiarities are incevitable where long lines are in continuous contact. The armies have now been stationary for so long that they are drawing supplies of fuel and horse forage from the distant rear, all other supplies being exhausted.

REVISING THE TARIFF.

President Will Not Discuss Action in His Message.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 -- Secretary of War Taft had a conference with the Presdent today regarding some features of Mr. Roosevelt's forthcoming message to Congress. It is likely that at the Cabict meeting tomorrow the President will be able to present a pretty careful draft of the document. It can be said authorof the document. It can be said authoritatively that he will not discuss the subject of tariff revision in his message. The consensus of opinion as expressed to the President was that if the tariff is to be revealed, the work should be taken up early; but thus far no decision has been reached, and none will be until the President has had opportunity to thoroughly discuss the subject with members of Congress generally.

The two men were painting the steel work on the under side of the bridge, when the platform on which they were standing was precipitated into the river the men following it. The stream at that point is deep and swift, and the two men were rapidly carried down the stream. Boats to Their Rescue.

Boats were manned and started from the shore to rescue them. Walton, who is ar expert swimmer, yelled to the men in the boats to save Baptiste, as he could swim out. Baptiste was pulled into the boat just as Walton gave a yell for help and sank out of sight. It is supposed he was attacked by cramps, as the water is very cold.

Man Dead, Wife Prostrated. Walton came here from Sait Lake about three months since to work on the bridge. His wife, who is an invalid, is prostrated, and it is feared the shock of her husband's death will prove fatal to her. Walten is a Knight of Pythias, belonging at Sait Lake. He was about 3 years of age.

Stream Dragged for Body. More than a hundred mon were engaged in dragging the stream, and after several hours' work found the bedy about four hundred yards below the bridge, The body will be shipped to Missouri.

BOISE, Ida., Nov. 17.-Q. B. Kelly, the issuased clerk of the penitentlary, to-lay walted upon Warden Perrin, with his attorney, presented the order of Secretary of State Gibson and Attorney-General Bagley, and demanded reinstate-ment to his old position.

Refuses the Demand. The warden promptly refused to honor the demand, and subsequently filed a sintement with the board giving his ren-sons. In this he recited the peculations amounting to $317, of which Kelly is alleged, as shown by the expert's report, to have been guilty, and says, "No provision having been made for the pay-ment of this, for which I am responsiment of this, for which I am responsi-ble on my official bond, and having a due regard for the safety of the institu-tion, its proper discipline, its honorable conduct and the general wolfare of its inmates, as well as a due consideration for the public interests prompts me to say to you, with all due respect, that it would not be possible for me to again place said Kelly in a position where he could continue his irregularities and peculations."

Warden Perrin today made the following statement in writing on the Kelly case: "In view of the fact that I was today acrosted by a prominent member of the Mormon church with reference to the statement made in today's issue of the Statement that the matters pertaining to former Clerk Kelly of this institution entered into consideration at the Moscow convention, and the bellef expressed by the said member that such statement emanated from me. I desire to say that such statement emanated from me. I desire to say that such statement was not made by me, nor do I believe that this matter was mentioned at the convention, for, as was mentioned at the convention, for, as a matter of fact the reasons for my dismissal of Kelly were not made known by me publicly until several days after the convention had adjourned. So far as Kelly's connection with the Mormon church is concerned, if he is so connected, it has not in the least influenced my action in dismissing him for gross irregularities."

Former Chief Clerk Kelly of the pen-tentiary disputed the report of Expert (Ingely, who examined his books after Varden Perrin had preferred charges, ad claimed that he had disproved the barges and necessations. He made a de-ense based on the face of the books, hat was satisfactory to the majority of the board. Kelly denies that he is a dorman.

CONTAINS REPRIMAND. Secretary Taft Disposes of Lieut. Pit-cher's Case.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.-Secretary Taft today disposed of the case of Lieut.-Col. William L. Pitcher, Twenty-eighth infantry, by directing the Chief of Staff to write a letter to the officer, a copy of which will be placed on record and will also be on file, as a part of the efficiency record of Col. Pitcher

This officer was accused of becoming engaged to Miss Harold of this city and, a few days before the date set for the wedding, unceremoniously breaking the engagement.

In disposing of the case, the letter states that lack of evidence and a desire on the part of the friends of the young lady, as well as the publicity it would bring to other persons, has determined the department to cease proceedings.

The letter is critical of Col. Pitcher, and contains a severe reprimand for the language he used in communications to the department. infantry, by directing the Chief of Staff
